

working in changing times

positive people action #5

Commitment

Commitment must be continuous for successful change. How will you keep your people's attention and engagement focused on the task? Change will not happen without commitment.

