Learning Pathways

Use our Learning Pathways today...

...and tailor them to fit with your own training programmes!

ScottBradbury
Get it right. Do it better.

Tell us what you want

Brief us on your internal learning programmes and tell us what Learning Pathways you would like to offer your people.

Video mapping

We recommend a set of videos that best fit your training programmes and needs. Or you can pick the videos yourself!

We create the pathway for you

Once your video selection is confirmed we create the Learning Pathway for you. This will be live and available online as soon as you want it to be.

Continued support

Ask us whenever you want a new pathway created, or contact us when additional support is needed.

Learning Pathways

Learning Pathways allow your people to follow a guided journey through specific topics. They are mapped out using specifically selected videos for particular learning programmes and work challenges.

We map out Learning Pathways specifically for your organisation by matching our videos to your internal programmes. And there is a range of off-the-shelf pathways ready to use immediately. These include:

- Being a Better Manager
- Important Stuff I Need To Know
- Impressing My Manager
- The New Manager
- Time Management and Priorities
- Working Well With My Colleagues
